

Welcome Back!

- Preparation
- Cowboy Poetry
- Trade Fair of American Stereotypes, Myths, and Realities
- Bubbly
- Wrap-Up

Trade Fair Preparation

Yee-haw! Cowboy Poetry

Wally McRae

- What are your impressions?
- What is the general theme (s) of his poem?
- Do you find anything particularly striking?

Howdy, Partner! More Poetry

1. In small groups, read aloud 1-2 poems from the handout
2. What do you notice about the poems?

Characteristics of Cowboy Poetry:

-
-
-
-
-
-
-

Fix'n to make yur own?

- Write the first line of your poem
- Hand your paper to the group next to yours
- Write the second line and pass it on
- Continue until finished!

Recitation

American Stereotypes, Myths, and Realities

- Set up your posters and Space
- Divide your group into two parts
- As a group, you will rotate between explaining your poster and exploring the other groups' posters
- Each person will have the chance to be both a speaker as well as a listener/explorer

Trade Fair Rotation Times

15-20 minutes Part 1

15-20 minutes Part 2

Congratulations!

- Fantastic work
- What was the most interesting thing you learned?

This one is dedicated to you

Bubbly

- Colbie Caillat

It starts in my toes and I crinkle my nose where ever it goes I always know that you make me smile

Reflective Journaling

Evaluations

- Please answer the following questions as candidly as possible.
- Your input is anonymous and invaluable in shaping both my own teaching and the topics that are chosen for future ELT workshops.
- When you are finished, please put them in the indicated folder.
- Thank you!

Jennifer Uhler

jenniferuhler@gmail.com

All workshop materials can be located and downloaded at
ELT2007.jennu.net